

Snacking? Solved!

Beyond simple product selection, G-Snack Design is such a versatile automatic vending machine that opens up vast opportunities to customers who are interested in engaging with a solid wealth of retail possibilities. Moreover, G-Snack Design 6 and 8 are designed to pass through narrow passages thanks to their split function which separates the main body from the payment column. The extreme versatility of this vending machine allows for accommodating a large array of F&B products as well as Extra-Vending merchandise of various sizes and shapes. As the most elegant range of vending machines, G-Snack Design seamlessly complements upscale environments such as high-end offices, offering both functionality and refined style
